ROAD CONGRESS TO MEET.

Advocates of Federal Aid Gather Here March 6.

Two days after the inauguration of the next President of the United States the second Federal Aid Good Roads Convention, under the auspices of the American Automobile Association, will be held here, the dates being March 6 and 7, 1913. The success of the initial Federal aid gathering here in January last was so pronounced, that the American Automobile Association national good roads board decided to make it an annual feature until Federal aid shall have become a substantial accomplished fact through Congressional action. If results follow future conventions as rapidly as they did the first one, it should be a matter of only a few years before a comprehensive system of national highways constructed by Federal appropriation is in existence.
